XML Test

Directions: Congratulations! YOU are the <oxygen/> XML Editor! Read the following XML document carefully and mark at least TEN of the XML-coding mistakes that cause the code to NOT be well-formed. Mark how to correct each error to make this a well-formed XML document. Ignore any coding issues that do not cause formedness errors (or will not produce an angry red square in <oxygen/>). Also ignore bad stylistic choices, context, spelling, or grammar errors. (Hint: There are 14 formedness errors here. Marking any formedness errors above ten will count as extra credit.)
